Earl Owen

Oct. 22, 1915

Mrs. Owen is a 33 year old white female seen for consulting and insanity evaluation. She was oriented with good memory at the time of the evaluation. She was cooperative with the evaluation. There was no evidence of thought disorder, suicidal, homicidal or paranoid ideation. Mrs. Owen had appeared distressed and depressed during the evaluation. She cried during the evaluation and was sobbing and wiping her hands.

Mrs. Owen stated that she has had two years of college and previously worked in a doctor's office. She reported that she saw a psychiatrist about eight years ago for only one visit. She denies any alcohol or drug abuse.

Mrs. Owen is charged with accessory before the fact in the murder of her husband. On Motory Intent

Admitted her volatility, had affairs and humiliated her severely.

Mrs. Brown was reluctant to develop further information before confering with her lawyer. Therefore further information concerning her mental state was not obtained and an opinion ^{as to} the current defence cannot be given at this time.

As far as competency is concerned, Mrs. Brown is competent to stand trial. She understands the charges against her and the possible consequences of the charges. She has an understanding of the legal process and she is capable of cooperating with and assisting her attorney in her defence.

Diagnostic Impression: Adjustment Disorder with Depression.

STATEMENT INFORMING DEFENDANT OF PURPOSE OF EVALUATION

A pre-trial (competency/insanity defense) Forensic evaluation was ordered on Maria G. O'NEAL by _____ The purpose of the evaluation was discussed with the defendant on _____ before the interview started. I explained that the evaluation was ordered by Judge _____ and that the defendant's attorney had knowledge of the evaluation. I further explained that information received during the interview would be available to the Judge, the Prosecutor, and the Defendant's Attorney; and that a letter summarizing the findings would be sent to the Judge, the Prosecutor and the Defense Attorney. The defendant was given the opportunity to ask questions about the procedures before the interview started. The defendant demonstrated that he understood the purpose of the evaluation by summarizing what I had said.
