

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF TENNESSEE

AT NASHVILLE

IN RE: MICHAEL JOE BOYD) SHELBY COUNTY
now known as Mika'eel Abdullah) S.Ct. No.
Abdus-Samad.) M1990-00011-SC-DPE-DD
Filed: May 4, 2007

MOTION TO RE-SET EXECUTION DATE

The State of Tennessee requests the setting of a new execution date for Mika'eel Abdullah Abdus-Samad, formerly known as Michael Joe Boyd, for the 1986 first degree murder of William Price. State v. Boyd, 797 S.W.2d 589 (Tenn. 1990), cert. denied, 498 U.S. 1074 (1991). This Court previously scheduled Abdus-Samad's execution for March 7, 2007. State v. Boyd, No. M1990-00011-SC-DPE-DD (Tenn. Dec. 20, 2006) (copy attached). That date passed, however, when, on February 1, 2007, the governor granted a reprieve until May 2, 2007, after directing the Commissioner of Correction to conduct a comprehensive review of the manner in which death sentences are administered in Tennessee and to provide new protocols and related written procedures for administering death sentences in Tennessee. On April 30, 2007, the Commissioner completed his review and forwarded the revised execution protocols to the governor.

The executive reprieve having now expired by its terms, and there being no legal impediment to Abdus-Samad's lawful execution, the State of Tennessee requests that the Court set a new execution date. See Tenn. Sup. Ct. R. 12.4(E) ("Where the date set by the Court for execution has passed by reason of a stay or reprieve . . . [a]ny new date of execution shall be no less than seven (7) days from the date of the order setting the new execution date.").

Respectfully submitted,
