O R D E R

Our review of this record reveals that the trial court corectly determined the facts and we concur in the facts as found by the trial court or as found by necessary implication. We further find no reversible error of law.

We therefore affirm this case in accordance with the Court of Appeals Rule 10a.¹

Costs on appeal are taxed to the petitioner/appellant.

¹Rule 10(a) of the Rules of the Court of Appeals provides:

The Court, with the concurrence of all judges participating in the case, may affirm the action of the trial court by order without rendering a formal opinion when an opinion would have no precedential value and one or more of the following circumstances exist and are dispositive of the appeal:

- 1) the Court concurs in the facts as found or as found by necessary implication by the trial court.
- 2) there is material evidence to support the verdict of the jury.
- 3) no reversible error of law appears.

Such cases may be affirmed as follows: Affirmed in accordance with the Court of Appeals Rule 10(a).
