JUDGMENT ORDER

This cause came on to be heard upon briefs, argument of counsel, and the record on appeal from the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Upon consideration whereof, this Court is of the opinion that under the facts of this case, the record does not support a waiver of the appellant's right to a constitutionally qualified judge, and thus, the judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals is reversed. In addition, there was no double jeopardy violation in the forfeiture proceeding.

Costs of appeal are taxed against the State, for which execution may issue if necessary.
