

IN THE COURT OF THE JUDICIARY
STATE OF TENNESSEE

Filed March 14, 2005

By majority vote of the judges on the Tennessee Court of the Judiciary, Rule 8 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Court of the Judiciary is amended by adding the following after the second sentence:

However, nothing in the Rule shall prohibit the complainant, respondent-judge, or any witness from disclosing the existence or substance of a complaint, matter, investigation, or proceeding under these Rules or from disclosing any documents or correspondence filed by, served on, or provided to that person.

DONE the 23rd day of February, 2005.

FOR THE COURT

J. STEVEN STAFFORD, PRESIDING JUDGE